

DISCOVER THE HIDDEN GEMS OF FRANKSTON

6 great reasons to visit

1 Stay in Frankston

You are within easy reach of Victoria's most popular attractions – the wineries and coastal national parks of the Mornington Peninsula, the fairy Penguins at Phillip Island, the Dandenong Ranges and the vibrancy of Melbourne City.

2 Let your tastebuds be tempted

Discover the myriad of cuisines available in Frankston from Thai, Greek, Japanese, Indian, Chinese, Italian, Mexican, Vietnamese, vegetarian and international.

3 Indulge in Cultural arts & Heritage

The Frankston Arts Centre & Cube37, the 1855 French Style homestead - Ballam Park; Victoria's regional sculpture park – McClelland Gallery; the Langwarrin Flora and Fauna Reserve and the historic Mulberry Hill, Langwarrin South

Contact 9784 1988

for a copy of the Frankston on the Bay Visitors Guide or visit www.frankston.vic.gov.au

4 Everything you need for a holiday!

This picturesque seaside region features 10km of pristine beaches and coastal habitat, boating, lush bushlands, gracious mansions, galleries, theatres, regional shopping centres and restaurants.

5 Try a family adventure!

Swimming with Dolphins, possum spotting at dusk, abseiling or trying to hook the one that didn't get away, Frankston and the Mornington Peninsula offer plenty of adventure!

6 Enjoy the clean, fresh air & experience Frankston naturally!

Kilometres of sandy foreshore and the calm, still waters of Port Phillip Bay.

The Natural Reserves

Bunarong Park (Melway 103 A6) Paratea Reserve (Melway 106 E3) Sweetwater Creek (Melway 102 A5) Seaford Wetlands (Melway 97 & 99) Kananook Creek Reserve (Melway 97 & 99) Pines Flora & Fauna Reserve (Melway 100 C8) Langwarrin Flora & Fauna Reserve (Melway 103 C10)

And don't forget Frankston's unique range of events throughout the year!